Hi Chad,

Sure thing. I've been practicing for approximately ten years. I started my career as a litigator at Quinn Emanuel, where I worked from 2014 to 2018. I then lateralled to Burke and have been working in public law since then. I am currently assistant GC for Valley of the Moon Water District. I also provide specific support in various areas of law to other public agency clients. For example, I advise special districts on public contracting, bidding, and procurement issues, and advise a number of cities on Public Records Act compliance. I have also continued to litigate cases on behalf of public agencies. These have involved CEQA, writ of mandate, landlord tenant, inverse condemnation, public nuisance, and other topics. I find my litigation experience helps with my advisory practice because I am better able to evaluate risks and convey those to clients. Here is my linked in.

My billing rate would be $395 per hour, but we often do fixed fee agreements with special districts, and I think that might be a good option for Graton.

I'd be happy to speak with you next week. I will be out on vacation Thursday and Friday, but we could speak before that. Would Tuesday at 2 p.m. work for you? I could send a Zoom.

Thanks,

Max

Hi Max,

Can you provide me with a brief background on you, the clients and roles you have experience with, and your billing rate? I plan to take it to the Board at their next meeting. Maybe we can have a quick phone chat next week?
